

Hello [REDACTED]!

6-26

Thanks for taking the time to write me! I appreciate all the positive energy you can throw my way! As you can imagine, I'm not getting much in the way of sympathy from the press. There's a bunch of liberal bastards! After reading all the inaccurate reporting on my case, I am highly suspect of everything they brought and paid for press reports on.

North Florida is more like the deep South. They seem to have a lot of racial guilt, or at least the prosecutor's office does. The jail here is almost all black prisoners. You'd think Jacksonville was 90-95% black, judging by the makeup of the folks in jail here! I've never seen a group of people so racially divided. The blacks hate the whites and the whites hate the blacks up here. My fear is that if I get 1 black on my jury, it will be a mistrial, as I am convinced they will be racially biased. I hope you got a chuckle from the Rolling Stones article. One more example of fiction masquerading as journalism! Thanks for taking such good care of my baby girl and for being such a good friend to her.

P.S. I Liked your Sun Tzu. Here's mine:

There are three things certain in this life:
Death, taxes, and that the press
will get it wrong.
