

jefflowe_tigerking Once and for all. This is Joe's own post. He states that Jeff Lowe was the legal owner of the zoo and that all the video footage sold to Netflix belonged to Jeff. Joe didn't and doesn't own shit. He's lucky I'm not suing him for copyright infringement. Every photo he uses on his merchandise, legally belongs to me and I could shut him down. I provided James with a copy of my legal trademarks to Tiger King and Joe Exotic today for safe keeping. Tami, Amy, Phillips keep talking shit and I'll bring down the wrath of a real lawyer upon you all and tie up the intellectual property with injunctions against anyone using it for profit. Me and James can use and will use the Tiger King name for any fucking thing we want. Including season 4 of Tiger King, FILMING NOW. @jamesgarretson1 @netflix @turtle.conservancy jeremyjmcbride
