Hey Joe
Danny just called me he says he wants $2000 a song to sell you all rights without credits meaning you can say you wrote the song sang it whatever please don't be mad at me I'm just telling you what the man wants its funny you should mention Toby Keith I had a manager for a minute he turned out to be a crook but that's another story he was pitching my songs to Toby's manager who loved a song of mine called I'm Glad My Mom Cant See Me but would I change a line so I did and would I make Toby the co-writer which I said yes because that's the way its done in nashville anyways they got down to 18 songs to pick from for his CD and mom was 1 of them but he didn't record it- story of my life so let me know what you think

Thanks

Sorry for this to be such a big mess. I know you do good work, ask him if 500 more for I saw a tiger if that would be cool. I just rescue tigers and a poor country boy that everyone fucks with because I try and do the right thing and it pisses the animal rights people off. You have done right by me so I want to do right by you. I am mainly doing these songs to make them wonder just what the hell I am up too and because they are awesome songs, not like I am going to get rich off of them, or me and you would have done been kickin Toby Keiths back side by now, you know what I mean?

so how about ya talk to your group and come up with a price for credits or without?

Hey Joe

Well I'll read your email as I go and respond how much does my singer want I don't know he's got a side gig tonight so I cant contact him I can tell you tomorrow what do you have in mind no need to babysit me Joe the internet is a perfect tool for cowards I would never lower myself to that- that was Danny's wife not me I done my research and read this before i started working with you as I said the internet can and is used by cowards fools slanders and cockroaches but you have been good to me fair and cool and I have tried my best to write you some great songs so regardless of what people say about you and or me hell with them but I do appreciate you taking that into consideration

I don't know Joe what may be the best solution is just truly buy the songs outright with no credit expected I Saw A Tiger GW And Me the ones with Dannys voice on so name a price and yes I write the songs and can do the music without the voice in fact You Cant Believe The Terry Thompson Story is really good it don't take much for me to get pissed at the powers that be anyways payoff credit I don't give a big rats ass lets just all do whats right man I'm just a lowly songwriter this is giving me a headache lol
Thanks

so how much does the singer want for the first song? and are you the song writer and can you do the music for songs without the voice.
I have no problem giving you credit but on the first song it already has nearly 1000 views and if we change it we have to start from square one with views or is credit in the description of youtube good enough?
I just dont want to babysit comments on youtube from the band. You have done a great job writing songs.
if you notice I just let people think what they want, I have never commented that it was me signing, according to my pr firm in NY that is the best thing to do is let people keep guessing that is what makes them come back to you.
So let me know what would make everyone happy. on the next video we make with GW and Me, I will credit the band. (but trust me on this vince, I have not yet because the minute I do the animal rights people and my haters are going to spread you all over the internet and give you shit so is it worth it?)
this is the bitch right now along with the HSUS that fucks with everyone I do business with she wants control of all the tigers that bad. do some research <http://911animalabuse.com/> look under her most wanted, I am at the top. I have been in a lawsuit with her for 2 years for slandering me.
and than watch her at work. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Np9ZJ8FYgbw> really think about it, its just a song and is it worth getting tied up in the mess and drama.

Well if there songs I already have recorded 6 new ones and the 15 on the Myspace $100 per song to write and record something specific $250 per song
Thanks

Vince

the producer JT had that contract you all sent so we could do it and promote the song to save the tigers on my branding not to work his butt off promoting the singer of the song.

when you all sell a song is that not what you do is sell the song? just wondering, but going online and posting bad comments on my youtube is not cool.

let me know how you want to proceed from here.

I can sing and have access to a studio in dallas to record over if that needs to be done but I was paying more not to have to drive to dallas tx.

One more sad song and I promise the rest will be more positive, take your time on this one if you have to, I am putting a couple links for you to read, my friend in Ohio I swear he was killed and did not do this to himself or his animals, the animal rights people set this whole thing up to gain control of the exotic animal industry and pass the laws they want. I still believe he would not have let the animals out to be killed and why would he cut cages open when he had the key? let me know if you think this is to much? I would like to have a song that would raise question and clear this mans name to some point or at least make people think what would possibly cause static if your just listening on your computer 4 Say Something and I just won't finish paying for angels don't fly, sell it to someone else. Vince really this music thing has become more of a pain in my ass than it's worth so figure out what you want to do, I am not made of money, sell out to Carole, it won't do anything for her except give her the information on songs I am pulling off the internet anyway. This will never stop, it will never go away and I will not live looking over my shoulder, I have receipts, contracts for the first set of songs and you think the old saying I ain't got nothing you can't get nothing is correct, wrong, think again Carole will make your life very difficult just paying lawyers to respond to her shit, that is one thing I have learned, she has a judgment against me now so who the fuck cares.

You decide what Vince wants to do, you want to continue to be an ass or you want to move on and make what money you can, your choice, I have my own life to save and that is all I care about right now.

if Danny is not to upset, I would love for him to do the vocals on them all and give me the oppurtunity to buy them from him vs singing them myself. Like I said it is a 5 hour round trip to dallas for me and on some like the I saw a tiger it is worth it to just buy it, the GW and me I have not decided yet what to do with it, Tried singing it myself, cant make it through it yet without crying so I may just give him credit on that one, but I am hoping the terry one is a killer song which I am sure it will be so I would like to

Good deal I appreciate that the music for You Cant Believe The Terry Thompson Story you've already paid for but I'm unsure of what you want me to do with it just send it to you and you can sing it or wait till the 12th for Danny to do vocals man I'm telling you you can ask anyone in a band or in the music business about who has the biggest egos hands down singers and mines a doozy lol it was money or credit for him so I'm glad we got that taking care of I'm with you there should be more mystery in songs/artist

I don't really care if Danny or you or Elmer Fudd does my songs
I may be a simpleton but its just about the act of writing and recording that floats my boat Thanks Joe

sorry we both got stuck in the middle of egos, but could not expect anything less, lol I will never tell anyone I sang that as like I said, let them guess, makes it alot funner than giving them an answer either way.

Hey guys, I have really enjoyed working with both of you alot, your both awesome at what each of you do, I would love to continue to work with both of you much more in the future but dont want to get caught in between a money argument.

For pretty women I have sent Danny 1250.00 and friday will have Vince paid in full 1250.00 also which paid the song 2500.00 so any dispute will need to be worked out between you both as I really don't want to get caught in the middle of who deserves what amount.

For future songs I will either pay 50/50 and you work out the studio amount between each of you or I will pay Vince a set amount for writing and Danny a set amount for the vocals, studio and instrumentals or how ever you want to work it out. Makes me no difference but can't get caught between one gets more than the other or what ever.

I am copying both of you on this email so we are all on the same page but again I hope to do a total of 10 songs on this cd and would like to do another cd over this summer so I hope an agreement can be worked out on payments to who and how much so there is no confusion and I am not caught in the middle. Hate to see either of you break up I think you both give each other a hell of a talent in your own way.

I have vince writing me another song so let me know how you all would like to move on with it so I can start getting payments to you.

so all songs are mine now until I'm paid $1250 for Waiting $1250 for Killer Carol as you promised if not paid you've broken our contract and again all songs are mine this morning Tuesday- I sent The Ballad Of Harry Reid by The Vince Johnson Band to Hotair.com D Loesch B Oreilly G Beck S Hannity M Malkin A Jones Tparty.org because of the content Son Of A Bitch I know they wont play it but they'll like it Wednesday-I will send I Saw A Tiger by The Vince Johnson Band to all the big cat sanctuary's I can find online letting them use it as a theme song if they like Thursday-I will contact Carol Baskin to see if she want's the song you had me write about her and send You Cant Believe by The Vince Johnson Band to radio stations in Ohio Friday-I will contact guardians of the children and start sending out small town-happy song-or fucking killer carol that's just danny boy playing games you can write your own songs from now on or have fatboy write them

Look, first of all I am far to professional to play fucking games. is this how you people treat all your clients or have you had any before. You would think you would have a bit more professional attitude with someone that spent nearly 30k, with you two.
so where is the carole song and the fun song at, these are the ones I was proposed to, and if their are different lyrics, I suggest someone stop playing games and produce them, I will not buy something sight un seen any longer if these are the games people are playing at my expense.
I have contracts for everything I have bought and a confidentiality contract also, Would not bother me one bit to press those issues, but again, I have been on the professional end of this paying the bill while getting stuck in the middle of bullshit., NOT MY PROBLEM.

The whole purpose of me even doing any of this is to give people a reason to hope, smile and enjoy dying and shit, to bad you are not on the same page, I aint making shit doing this. Just like to see people smile. So no skin off my back to take them off line, or anything else. but I will NOT be held hostage between two people that cant get along.

So you all decide what the hell is going on, I am working my ass off to pay the bills here and if those are not the words you made for the songs I ordered you work it out, again, I dont know because it is always a secret of what you write before I buy it, so If you have a problem with danny changing it or something maybe you should let the guy who is buying it see it before it is sang.

If you remember right, I paid you for the small town song even though I have not used it., that was on this last balance

I ordered a song that anyone could relate to, fun, to do for youtube and this is not what I ordered?

I Got A Woman

How could this happen to someone like me

I was in a freefall i was in need

Everytime she moves everytime she breaths

I can feel the power rushin in me

Cause i got a woman and i understand

I got a woman and she's got a man

No more lookin no more runnin around

I'm done with the late nights in a lonely town

And i'll never walk alone i know

I got a cute little shadow everywhere i go

Cause i got a woman and i understand

Than I asked for a song about good ole carole, well where did this fit in?

I Got A Hot Little Whore

I got my whore out hookin 82nd and glisan street

And if she comes up short i take a bat right to her knee

Some say the american dream But its all big pimpin to me

I got a hot little whore and she gives all her money to me

I got a drop top caddie crack and a bottle a wine
I got a phat diamond watch and the ladys think i'm fine
I got gold all through my teeth A mac daddy if you ever seen

I got a hot little whore and she gives all her money to me

Well i aint worked a lick since 1995
But that crazy little girl still eats up all my jive
And when i give her a little punch i say baby that just means love

Man i got a hot little whore and she gives all her money to me

Tired of being caught in the middle of you guys problems, so I guess the fun is over for right now. I wrote one last one that danny is doing than I am done. Time to spend some money on people that appreciate their clients. I didnt want to buy songs that anyone had laying around. All the ones I bought and paid for all some some kind of meaning. these last ones do not.

Are you the voice talent that Joe Schreibvogel takes the credit for?

Why would you do that?

You have such a wonderful voice and should have such a great fan base, I can't imagine why you would allow it.

Subject: Re: <No Subject>

Here is my thing, You signed contracts giving up ALL RIGHTS to the songs I paid $2500.00 for and I have every receipt of payments sent to both of you.

If you think for one minute I am making money here your way off base, I am doing this to ONLY promote the zoo so we can help more animals in need. Each song to pay you all for, pay the video people for ect cost me 4600.00 to put out. No way in hell have i made enough back to even pay for one song so far.

I am the most honest business person you will ever meet, I have done everything I said I would and kept my end of the deal. I pulled all videos off youtube because my life will go on with or without these songs and I will make money doing what ever I choose to do. But black mailing me is not an option here just because you and danny can not work out your differences.

I think the best solution for your and his problem is to pay you to write the songs and him to sing them and you both name your price and I will pay the studio.

So you decide if your in the position to loose my business or not because I can live without these songs and will, but not after I get my attorneys involved with you breaking the contracts of giving up the rights to these songs. Because a deal is a deal and I again kept my end of it, when you raised the price of the songs after the first one came out.

The say something song was done only because my chimp died and it did not need to be written over, just sang. so once again I have no contact with neither you or danny saying I have to use one of you, or both of you or any of you. So again would you rather get paid to write or not make anything?

Because I won't deal with the drama and fighting, that is not who I am so pulling all the videos is again no skin off my back what so ever and moving along with my life.

I am doing this for fun and fun only, not because I am going to be another Clint Black.....

So I will send not another dime to anyone until that confidentiality contract is signed and notarized.

I saw this coming weeks ago.

As broke as you all seem to be your cutting off your nose to spite your face, Because I was fixing to do another 6-8 songs this summer.

your call

Here's the thing Joe

I'm asking you please don't use any more songs such as say something with danny

I feel we should be doing the songs you had me write all I need is a simple yes or no from you

I just seen the fucking thing last night do you think good old danny told me about it of course not to answer your question what Vince wants to do is to get in and get those songs done you had me write am I crazy is that not fair

So let me get this right, I paid the price you all asked, plus some, and now that Danny wants to split up and have me pay you to write and pay him to sing you want me to pay you another $1000.00 for what after you signed all the contracts for what I already paid you? and instead of me paying you both separate you just want 1000.00 and write no more songs? or what? trust me I am making no money doing this so pulling the videos and saying later is not a problem for me, because if this is how you play I want no part of it. and if you can say you want more now, what makes me think you wont want more again, Black mail is not what I am into,

Let me know what Vince wants to do, write and make money or just forget all of this and I will pull the videos.

Have a great day.

you say Danny gave me permission to do the next song what a sweet kid but I feel I must Say Something- silly me I thought we were all in this together somehow I feel I'm owed another $1000 after all you are my client correct and Danny did get paid for my songs correct but you two evidently have other ideas I think I should look out for old Vinnie get me some press so what I'm going to do is post the the six songs on youtube under The Clinton Johnson Band saying I wrote them and danny sang them then contact all your fans who leav't comments and contact the media there in Oklahoma tv stations newspapers radio big and small and give them the scoop then there's redcowhills urbanjungle PETA post ads on craigslist backpages well there's just to much to mention why am I boring you with details it's a shame it has to end this way Joe I was looking forward to doing those 3 songs you had me write

Hey Joe

Well I appreciate that but I think what your paying is fair we split it but Dannys ego is so big he thinks he deserves more then me

I write the songs I do the music then he just comes in and sings

I have had Terrys song ready since June 25th that's your typical singer the world revolves around them

Thanks

hey Vince
The GW and Me video will be done tomorrow, your gonna be proud. I went to dallas to the studio cause I wanted to sing it myself, I bet I sang it 70 times and could not make it through it without crying every time. What a powerful song, so I left Dannys voice in it. The video was made at the very hospital he died at, the cemetery etc . Tell Danny this song means the world to me.
Let me know when I owe you the next 200 for terry's and than I will get the remaining to danny soon.

I just sent you the email that started all of this you should never have sent that and fuckhead would have never known and would have been happy with his grand a song but anyways from now on these new songs are specifically written for you so it's a even split like always between me and danny I think $2000 a song is fair to answer your question who's in charge well I make about 90 per cent of the decisions so pay me $1000 a song then pay danny $1000 you need to pay me first joe

I get in and get my job done danny is always sick on vacation or the dog ate his homework don't you remember how pissed I would get waiting for his big ass to get your songs done so just get me paid up for pretty woman then we can get the other ones started as soon as you like anyways I hope this hasn't been to big a pain in the ass for you its always something

I know I have sent you 1000.00 and I know danny called me and bitched and said that I owed you both 1250.00 on pretty women, and that your figures where wrong that you should not have been getting more than him, so again who the hell is calling the shots between you and him, I have no problem paying 2500 per song I just dont know who to pay and how much because ya all cant agree, so I will take the hicky on this one and loose 250 more and send you 500 but in the future you both need to come up with a figure together that you both agree on.

I'll chill when we get this straighten out I don't give a fuck what danny agrees with or not the figures I sent you regarding your 3 payments to me are correct I have the dates to prove it what do you mean by what I think I'm owed you and me agreed on $1500 for me $1000 for him that's a fact if you paid him more good luck trying to get your money back according to you you've paid $2500 for Pretty Woman I've received $1000 so you tell me who's right and who's wrong and who should be mad as far as future songs fuck I've already wrote them for you I've been waiting for you to settle with pretty woman you wanted a song about animals I wrote it you wanted a song about your small town I wrote it the way me and danny work is I write them then I go in and get the music done then he comes in and sings then I send the songs to you period we can still do that if you wish I don't have to see him and he doesn't have to see me as I said before Tiger GW Thompson and Sun I wrote for you hence the $2000 per song which me and danny split 50/50 the other's were my songs hence the $2500 per song and I deserved more he's to stupid to realize that but I don't think you are Chill Vince.....

I will take the loss on the x-tra money and count it as a lesson made again. I will get you the money for this song plus what you think you are owed more than Danny, I have asked you time and time again for a pay pal account as it is easier and faster to pay with because that is where most money comes in and you would rather wait till I have the cash. so I owe you 500.00 more.

So again any songs from now on need to be broke down with all 3 people involved as I wont get stuck in the middle of your mud fight between each other. Very sad that someone that has paid you over 10,000.00 so far in songs your willing to turn down future business because you two cant decide who deserves what? Very bad business the figures you gave me on pretty women were your figures and Danny did not agree with them, your suppose to be a team band so who is in charge of what?

For pretty women I have sent Danny 1250.00 and friday will have Vince paid in full 1250.00 also which paid the song 2500.00 so any dispute will need to be worked out between you both as I really don't want to get caught in the middle of who deserves what amount.

For future songs I will either pay 50/50 and you work out the studio amount between each of you or I will pay Vince a set amount for writing and Danny a set amount for the vocals, studio and instrumentals or how ever you want to work it out. Makes me no difference but can't get caught between one gets more than the other or what ever.

I am copying both of you on this email so we are all on the same page but again I hope to do a total of 10 songs on this cd and would like to do another cd over this summer so I hope an agreement can be worked out on payments to who and how much so there is no confusion and I am not caught in the middle.
